The NTA Team

ABOUT THE NTA

The NTA was founded in 1997 by Gray Graham to be the transformative educator of Nutritional Therapy and reconnect people with healing foods and vibrant health. Since that time, the NTA has certified over three thousand Nutritional Therapy Practitioners (NTPs) and Consultants (NTCs) through classes across the United States, Australia, and Canada.

The NTA is included in the NANP's Approved & Recommended Holistic Nutrition Education Programs and is a Cornerstone Member of the American Nutrition Association.
